

E-NEWSLETTER

February 2018

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the latest issue of the E-newsletter of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing this newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

Japanese students at our Faculty

5 Japanese students arrived from Josai University, Japan within the framework of the Japanese-Hungarian exchange programme for a one-month touristic training. First Dr. József Káposzta, dean of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences greeted the Japanese students at the International Relations Cabinet and then the Japanese students introduced themselves.

Within the frame of teaching staff exchange Nan Zhao was invited to visit, teach and job-shadow at Szent István University from 1 March, 2018 till 1 July, 2018 on the basis of a cooperation agreement signed in 2017. Her home institution is Zhejiang Business Technology Institute in the People's Republic of China. During her stay, Nan Zhao (Maggie) will have classes about Chinese economy and other related issues.

Practical information:

2 April: is the deadline for submitting the thesis work in printed form to the study officers.

26 April: 3rd International Young Researcher Scientific Conference on "Sustainable Regional Development - Challenges of Space & Society in the 21st Century" will be organized at SZIU. For more information check the following website: https://www.gtk.szie.hu/sites/default/files/upload/event/srd\_conference\_1st\_call.pdf