

E-NEWSLETTER

February 2019

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the latest issue of the E-newsletter of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing this newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

Diplomatic and international organizations specialist executive MBA course opening ceremony

Diplomatic and international organizations specialist executive MBA course opening ceremony took place on 16 February. Participants of the MBA course will receive theoretical and practical knowledge as well. The main aim of the course is to train professionals who will be experts in the field of international relations, diplomacy, international law and in international project management.

Japanese students at our Faculty

5 Japanese students arrived from Josai University, Japan within the framework of the Japanese-Hungarian exchange programme for a one-month touristic training. Dr. József

Káposzta, dean of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences greeted the Japanese students at the International Relations Cabinet on 26 February. During their stay, the Japanese students will learn tourism related subjects, Hungarian culture and civilization and they will get acquainted with Hungarian famous sights, traditions and cuisine.

Practical information:

- Deadline for submitting thesis: 1 April, until 12:00 o'clock. Good luck for the spring semester!