

E-NEWSLETTER

March 2018

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the latest issue of the E-newsletter of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing this newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

Certificate of merit was given to the Japanese students -participating at our partial training at the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences- by Dr. József Káposzta, dean of the faculty. With the certificate the students' work was acknowledged for helping this 7-year long tradition live further. In power point presentations the students shared their experiences they gained in Hungary and at the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences. At the end of the closing ceremony they served special home-made Japanese food to the teachers and guests.

SZIU's management has decided to apply for QS-EECA Ranking, which has become a very reputable ranking of universities and is widely known for its transparent, fair and reliable criteria.

On 23 March the ball for the graduating students took place in the Aula where the students received their SZIE GTK ribbon from the management of the faculty.

Ms. Marie Antoinette Sedin, the Ambassador of Palestine in Hungary offered to plant an olive tree taken from the Holy Land as a sign of cooperation and helpfulness between her country and Szent István University. The tree will be planted in the botanical garden at the end of April, where more ambassadors will be invited.

Practical information:

2 April: is the deadline for submitting the thesis work in printed form to the study officers.

26 April: 3rd International Young Researcher Scientific Conference on "Sustainable Regional Development - Challenges of Space & Society in the 21st Century" will be organized at SZIU. For more information check the following website: https://www.gtk.szie.hu/sites/default/files/upload/event/srd_conference_1st_call.pdf