

E-NEWSLETTER

May 2018

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the latest issue of the E-newsletter of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing this newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

Cooperation agreement between SZIU and City Sightseeing Budapest

According to the cooperation agreement made between the Faculty of Economics of Szent István University and City Sightseeing Ltd in Budapest, the football group of foreign students at the university -called International Team- is sponsored by the company. The international team participated at several tournaments in 2017/18 and they were very successful. Furthermore, in the academic year of 2016/17 they reached a 2nd place at a tournament. The members of the team are: Hasan Muhandes©, Ribal Masri, Hisham Leheta, Aimen Abdalla, Fisnik Shaqiri, Marwan Hmoumen, Yahia Rachdi, Majd Morad, Sharaf Mali, Mahmoud Salama, Adam Gróbb, Soma Schnabl and Szabolcs Somogyi.

Olive tree donation from the Holy Land

Her Excellency Ms. Marie Antoinette Sedin, Ambassador of the State of Palestine, donated an olive tree from the Holy Land to the Botanical Garden of Szent István University. The olive tree, a symbol of peace and longevity, was presented to our university to acknowledge acceptance of students from the Gaza Strip. In her welcome speech, Her Excellency emphasized the importance of the olive tree for Palestinians.

Practical information

The official graduation ceremony of the faculty will take place on 9th June 2018 from 10 a.m. in the Aula. Anyone can come, you do not need an invitation, so I would encourage all those who are interested to come and celebrate together with the graduating students.
