

E-NEWSLETTER

February-March 2017

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the latest issue of the E-newsletter of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing a monthly newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

For most of you, February meant a new start, since the spring semester has started. Lectures are ongoing.

The latest issue of the university magazine was also released with an interview with Mariam Hamida, 2nd year master student. We are really proud of her!

In March we had the traditional Japanese month which has been organized the fourth time at the faculty. On 1 March, a student delegation with 17 members from the Josai International University visited us and had a joint program with our students, delivering presentations about various interesting topics.

A few days later 5 Japanese students arrived for the one-month exchange program to study tourism at our faculty. In addition to the lectures, they could take part in various cultural and sport programs e.g. doughnut-making, handcrafting, sport competition etc.

On 24 March, the ball for the graduating students took place in the Aula where the students received their SZIE GTK ribbon from the management of the faculty.

Practical information:

- 31 March is the deadline for submitting the thesis work in printed form to the study officers (Enikő and Kinga) and the internship documents (BSc).

Please keep the deadlines and check the <http://gtk.sziu.hu/en/current-students/schedule-20162017-spring> link for the spring semester schedules.

Please also help the work of the international office and the work of the study officers by visiting them in office hours.

Enjoy the nice sunny weather! ☺
