

E-NEWSLETTER

November 2016

Dear Readers,

Please welcome the first issue of the latest innovation of the Faculty of Economics and Social Sciences of the Szent István University. By publishing a monthly newsletter, we wish to share the most important events and activities of the Faculty in each month and inform you about the coming events. On behalf of the editors, we hope that you will enjoy it. Please feel free to share news and photos with us about the events by sending them to the International Office.

The first week of November was the project week, which is for preparing the assignments and preparing for the in-term tests. It is also suitable for having some fun and getting some exciting experience with friends and classmates.

From 8th to 11th November, a Polish delegation visited our Faculty from the Pope John Paul II State School of Higher Education in Biala Podlaska to negotiate the possible ways of cooperation in the field of rural development, regional policy, development of rural areas etc. The two institutions have started to finalize the cooperation agreement.

On 11th November, the ball for freshmen took place. This occasion has been organized for decades and during the event, the heads of faculties officially welcome the 1st year students by pinning a

SZIE ribbon on them.

On 23rd November, the VUA YOUTH scientific conference, titled as „Future scientists for sustainable development” took place at our Faculty. In 3 sessions, 31 presentations were delivered by students from 19 countries with huge success.

24th November was a special day in the life of our Faculty. We celebrated the 30th anniversary of its establishment.

In the morning, there was a plenary session with the participation of the 4 deans from the last three decades (unfortunately the fifth has already passed away) and the faculty staff. In the afternoons, parallel sessions were organized in the four institutes.

On 25th November, a large delegation of professors and students took part in the 5th international scientific conference organized by our strategic partner, the School of Economics and Management in Public Administration in Bratislava, Slovakia.

On 29th, we closed the month by a field trip to a vineyard for the rural development and agribusiness class.
